

Ivyl Carlin

Sept. 12, 1937 - April 19, 2018

Ivyl Carlin, passed away peacefully on April 19, 2018 in Bryan, OH at the age of 80. A Williams County resident her whole life, Ivyl was born on September 12, 1937 in Stryker, OH to Albert and Lucille (Allison) Stamm. She graduated from Stryker High School in 1955. She married Gene K. Carlin her high school sweetheart, on February 11, 1956.

Ivyl was employed for General Telephone for 27 years, Springfield Village treasurer for 14 years and drove bus for Quadco for 13 years. She was active on the Williams County Fair Board for six years, AAL Branch # 6807 Recorder, and a charter member of the Stryker School Foundation. She was a former Stryker Music booster Secretary and a member of the Stryker Chamber of Commerce and also served as Secretary. Ivyl's love for volunteering allowed her to deliver meals for the Stryker Dining Center, and serve on the council before the local center opened, assist with hospice patients, and bloodmobiles. She attended First Lutheran Church where she participated in the Lutheran Altar Guild and choir.

She enjoyed traveling over all of the world and spending the winter months at Fun N Sun in San Benito, Texas. While in Texas she volunteered with children through the Help One Student to Succeed (HOSTS) program and was active with the Red Hats Club.
