

John L. Gain

March 1937 - Aug. 2017

John L. Gain, 80, of Jacksonville, died Wednesday, Aug. 30, 2017, at Lavender Ridge in Jacksonville.

John was a masonry contractor in Jacksonville for many years. He was a member of Faith Lutheran Church. He enjoyed hunting and fishing and was an avid outdoorsman. John and his wife Jean loved to play golf and to travel. They spent many winters at Fun N Sun. John was always kind, loved people, and never met a stranger.

John was born March 6, 1937, in Belleville, the son of Edward Regis and Marie Wanda (Walters) Gain. He married Jean Hedden in 1975 in Jacksonville, and she survives.

John is also survived by one daughter, Laurie Gain Marchiando of Tucson, Arizona; one son, Larry Gain of Ashland; one stepson, Bruce (Debbie) Hedden of Mount Sterling; two stepdaughters, Connie (Tom) Langan of Mount Sterling and Pat Buss of Clayton; 10 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and two brothers and two sisters, Edward (Betty) Gain of Smithton, Marie Marteney of San Marino, California, Ernestine Stroud of Columbia, South Carolina, and Luther (Bonnie) Gain of Jacksonville. He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Jeff L. Gain; one grandson, Jason Hedden; one sister, Crystal Herbstreith; and one brother, William Gain.

Memorials are suggested to Faith Lutheran Church or to the Alzheimer's Association. Condolences may be left at buchanancody.com.