Melvin Granik

SAN BENITO, TX.-

Melvin Granik, 83, passed away Wednesday, December 29, 2010 in Retama Manor Nursing Center.

Melvin was born in Newark, New Jersey to Albert and Rose Granik. He spent his adult life as an educator in Lakewood, New Jersey. He met and married Barbara Hudson; and they just celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Barb and Mel spent their retirement years traveling the country, hunting and fishing, and making many friends.

Mel is survived by a niece, Alyson Lazaro; and nephew, James Granik.

As per his wish, his body was cremated and will be buried in Heavenly Grace Memorial Park.

He will be missed by everyone who knew him.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Heavenly Grace Funeral Home and Crematory.
