

 Joseph Walter Itchue, 91, of Burton, Michigan, died Thursday, March 23, 2017, at his residence with his wife Dolly of 67 years by his side. Honoring his wishes, cremation has taken place. Private burial of ashes will be held at Sacred Heart Cemetery, Gladwin at a later date. Joe was born in Detroit, Michigan on August 31, 1925 the son of the late John & Eva (Mohr) Itchue, and has resided in Burton since 2013 spending many years in Gladwin. He was joined in marriage to Doris "Dolly" Albert on February 20, 1950 in Pontiac, Michigan.

Answering the call of his country Joe served in the US Navy during WW II. He was a proud member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Fraternal Order of Eagles. He had been employed by General Motors Pontiac Motor Division until his retirement on Aug. 1, 1977. He leaves these people to cherish his memory: wife Doris "Dolly," daughter Vallarie (Dwight) Dillon, grandson Joseph Dillon and Jamie, his great granddaughters Abbie and Anna. Also surviving are nieces Sharon (Dave) Curl, Linda (Rick) Goes, and his siblings: Catherine (Ted) Forton & family, and Mary Ann (Tom) Hendry & family.

FNS days: For many years Joe and Dolly lived in a park model on One Way 21. Stained glass ornaments that Joe made were hung outside the park model. Most mornings he was seen walking Val's dog around the park. A special outing was to play golf with daughter Val.

Share your condolences at www.hansenfuneralhome.net