

Stella Winkleman Legare

August 24, 1918 - August 30, 2015

Stella Worley Jennings Winkleman, 87, of San Benito, TX, formally of Roswell, NM, passed away August 30, 2015. Born August 24, 1918, in Blum, TX, her parents were David S. & Pearl J. Worley.

Stella was a loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, and aunt. She was a caring friend to many. She loved traveling, music, but most of all dancing.

Stella came to Fun N Sun almost 30 years ago, in 1986. She took part in just about everything the park had to offer, especially dancing and dance classes. She was a member of the High Steppers tap dancers as well as a clogger and a can-can dancer at Western Days. For a few years she taught Hula classes for the Luau.

She played the washboard in the Kitchen Kut-Ups Kazoo band and was a member of the Ukulele Group. She liked to play pool volleyball and shuffleboard and also enjoyed Thursday night Bingo. She was a member of the Alpha Red Hats.

Stella and Charles were the Luau Queen and King in 2010.

After Charles passed, she became an active member of the Singles group.

When Stella was younger she cut a 45 rpm record of two Country Western songs, What Did you Do? and Prison of Blues. She was helped by Sonny James. The record was played in Texas and New Mexico.

Stella lived and enjoyed her life just the way she wanted to.

She is survived by her children, Donna Earnest (Keith), Lynda Goodman (Evan) and Raymond P. Jennings, Jr (Judy); 6 grandchildren; 6 great grandchildren and sister Pearl L. Mason. She was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Legare, her parents, and 5 brothers and 5 sisters.
