

Houston F. Mizar
Oct. 11, 1923 – July 1, 2010

Houston was born in Avard (Woods County), Oklahoma and died in Campbellsville (Taylor County), Kentucky, where he lived with his wife Gertrude.

Houston and Gertrude spent winters at Fun N Sun in their motor home on Peaceful Street. In 2000, Houston was elected King Comus for Mardi Gras. He was in the Kitchen Kutups band, served ice cream on Sunday nights, and was Deputy Sheriff for Western Days where he put errant residents in “jail”.

Houston and Gertrude at the Mississippi River in Vicksburg, 1997.