

Thomas L. Moll

Nov. 27, 1947 - Nov. 30, 2017

Thomas L. Moll, 70, of Ellis Grove, Illinois, passed away at his residence on Nov. 30, 2017. On November 27, 1947, he was born to the late Gilbert and Evelyn (nee DuFrenne) Moll in Red Bud, Illinois.

Tom married Jeri York on June 24, 1972 at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Prairie du Rocher; she survives. Tom had worked as a truck driver for Tower Rock Stone Company in Ste. Genevieve, Missouri, for 27 years. Tom was a member of St. Mary Church of Divine Maternity in Ellis Grove. He was a member of the American Legion Post No. 622, the Red Bud Car Club, and the Ellis Grove Fire Department. He was an Army veteran.

Tom was a supporter for Relay for Life and helped organize fundraisers for them. He also organized numerous car shows in surrounding areas.

Tom and Jeri's first year at Fun N Sun was 2015-16. He was an outgoing people-person and soon volunteered to serve ice cream on Sunday nights and be a track marshall at Zoomer RC car races. He also organized the first annual Fun N Sun car show, which was held in the front parking lot, and donated the proceeds to the Ronald McDonald House. At home in Illinois Tom had been packing his camper, as he had reserved a site at Fun N Sun, and was looking forward to the 2017-18 season.

Memorials can be made to Relay for Life, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and Shriner's Hospital for Children.
