Louise was born on Feb. 14, 1926, in Weldon, Ill., the daughter of Ernest and Clara Parr Dickey. She married Chester Schultz, of Clinton, Iowa, on Aug. 24, 1946, also in Weldon.

Louise was a 1948 graduate of Illinois State (Normal) University with a degree in home economics education. She obtained a master's degree in education from Western Illinois University in 1975. She taught home economics at Washington Junior High School in Rock Island for 29 years, retiring in 1985. She was a member of the Illinois Retired Teachers' Association and Delta Kappa Gamma Society International.

A longtime member of South Park Presbyterian Church, Louise was active in Women's Circle activities and the South Park Mariners.

Following her retirement, Louise traveled extensively with her husband. Their last 16 winters were spent in San Benito, Texas. She also enjoyed spending time with her family.

Survivors include her husband, Chester; daughters (and sons-in-law), Linda (Gear) Kimmel, Champaign, Ill., Rebecca (John) Each, Muscatine, Iowa; grandchildren (and spouses), Julie (Grant) Kimmel Alger, Doylestown, Pa., Michael (Amanda) Landers-Each, Muscatine, and Jacob (Marcy) Each, Manchester, Iowa; and six great-grandchildren.

Louise was preceded in death by her parents.
